

1. If you could describe this book with one word, what would it be?

6. What does this story tell us about power?

2. Is this the kind of book that you can read a little bit before going to bed, or does it require some concentrated reading time?

7. How do you think not having a mother influenced the trajectory of Esme's life and her character?

3. Pull a quote from the book. Why did you find this quote meaningful?

8. Is the ending of the book just? Do the characters get what they deserve?

4. How did you find the writing style? What did or didn't work for you?

9. Do you think this is a hopeful story? Consider arguments for and against.

5. What did you think of the book cover? Did it accurately reflect what the book was about?

10. If you could ask the author a question about the book, what would it be?

What rating would you give?

Would you re-read?

YES NO

Would you recommend to a friend?

YES NO

This book paired well with: WINE TEA COZY BLANKET OTHER _____